How it works

- BEST runs a six-week housekeeping pre-apprenticeship program. Candidates are very interested in the hospitality industry and are carefully vetted by way of multiple interviews, a drug test, language assessment, reference check and more.
- Hospitality industry partners helped develop the curriculum, assist with recruitment, assessments and training, and provide hotel tours and job shadowing.
- Program graduates continue as UNITE HERE Local 26 housekeeping apprentices at partner hotels. BEST supports the employer and the associate with ongoing professional development and coaching. BEST graduates are eligible for 9-12 college credits.
