MOBILE AmericanJobCenter® TENNESSEE

"Mile By Mile"

Providing Job Searching and Workforce Services to Tennessee

The Purpose of Mobile American Job Center Units

The main function of the Mobile American Job Centers are to provide workforce services in a mobile capacity.

The intent of the Mobile American Job Centers is to deliver the services of the Tennessee Department of Labor & Workforce Development to the public by bringing the services to the public.

One main focus is to utilize the Mobile American Job Center units to provide workforce services to areas and populations that lack access to a traditional American Job Center.

The Mobile American Job Center can also be utilized to provide services at large functions in metro areas such as job fairs and other events geared towards job seekers and employers.

The Mobile American Job Center Units also assist with training workshops at high schools, colleges, and correctional facilities.

The Tennessee Career Coach

“Mile by Mile”

The Mobile American Job Center program consists of 6 Units, two in each area of the state.

The Mobile American Job Centers housed in Jackson, Lawrenceburg and Chattanooga are 34 feet in length and 13 feet high, which, for perspective, is like a medium sized RV. Each unit has 10 laptops, a network printer, fax machine and copier, a 42” flat-screen TV with SmartBoard® overlay, and a DVD/CD player. These units are equipped with wifi Internet service and an inside and outside PA system.

The Mobile American Job Centers housed in Memphis, Nashville, and Knoxville are 27 feet in length and 11 feet 9 inches high. Each of these units contains 4 tablets and 5 laptops, a network printer, and a flat screen TV. The Coaches are equipped with wifi internet service.

Mobile Career Centers Statistics

The Mobile American Job Centers program brings job service to many customers who lack access to a brick and mortar building, and provides access to job service that customers might not be able to obtain. In October of 2016, The Mobile American Job Center program expanded from 3 to 6 units in order to better serve the entire state of Tennessee.

Employer Services

The Mobile American Job Centers are great for recruitments, interviews and/or new business openings. It provides a working space, which is extremely beneficial to businesses that are still under construction but need to start hiring. Since we have a classroom type setting with the supporting technology; it can be used for company training, as well.

Career Specialists assigned to the Mobile American Job Center Units can assist employers in posting jobs on Jobs4tn.gov as well as guidance on how to use the website to locate and contact potential employees.

Employer Services – Layoff or Closure

The Mobile American Job Centers provides services that will assist employers and employees in the event of a business closure or layoff. Employees are able to file for their unemployment benefits online using the technology available on the Mobile American Job Centers, as well as receive assistance with their job search, creating a resume, and interviewing tips.

Employer Services – Career and Job Fairs

At career or job fairs, the Mobile American Job Centers can function as a resource for employers by assisting potential candidates with applying online and creating resumes. Media releases are created and sent out to local media regarding events that the Mobile American Job Center participates in, as well as promoting those events on the Mobile American Job Center Facebook page.

Job Seeker Services - Overview

Career Specialists can deliver workshops to groups of job seekers either on the Mobile American Job Center units themselves or to larger groups within a facility. The workshops cover such topics as resume writing, interviewing, and job searching.

Job Seekers accessing the coach can also receive help with registering for Jobs4TN, assistance with creating a winning resume, and answers to their questions about how to respond to those tough interview questions.

Offender Reentry

The Mobile American Job Centers assist offenders at correctional facilities as well as probation offices to facilitate re-entry into the workforce. Career Specialists assist offenders with overcoming barriers to employment, and can provide information about the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) and Federal Bonding to customers who would qualify for these programs.

High School and College Events

The Mobile American Job Center Units frequently visit high schools, technical schools, and colleges to assist students with registering to use Jobs4tn and provide training on job related topics. Career Specialists can assist students with career direction and assessments, offering access to tools that are critical to the success of the students in their career paths.

Veteran's Services

The Mobile American Job Center program also provides workforce services to veterans and servicemen, ensuring priority of service in referral to jobs and other services.

Outreach

The Mobile American Job Center program provides outreach to rural areas that lack a brick and mortar American Job Center, and also to populations that may have issues getting to an American Job Center in urban areas. The Mobile American Job Center program brings the Job Center to you! The Mobile American Job Center partners with other agencies such as SNAP and Vocational Rehabilitation to bring services to those who need them.

Disaster

The Mobile American Job Centers may also be mobilized in the event of a disaster to serve as a command center and/or provide services to the public. This recently occurred at the end of November in 2016, when wildfires swept through Gatlinburg. Many lives were lost and businesses and homes were destroyed. The Mobile American Job Centers served as mobile Job Centers allowing those who lost their jobs access to computers so that they could file their unemployment claims online.
