Executive Summary

Event Title: An Inside Look at BOP's Educational and Training Programs, Services, and Resources
Date: March 29, 2023
Moderator(s): Brandon Horning
Speaker(s): Renee Corriveau

This webinar offers insight into the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Prisons (BOP) educational and training programs, including:

- A review of federal prison demographics
- A description of federal prison facilities
- A description of the levels of supervision in federal prison systems
  - Minimum, low, medium, high, or administrative
- An overview of the Bureau of Prison Assessments
- A description of educational and training programs
  - Bureau Literacy Program – GED
  - Career & Technical Education Training
- A review of resources available within the institutions
  - Career Resource Centers (located in the Education or Reentry Departments)
  - Resources available to assist offenders with:
    - ✓ Things to do before release
    - ✓ Things to do after release
    - ✓ Suggestions to follow to rebuild

Run of Show

Welcome and Introductions	0:09
Review of Today's Objectives	3:05
Federal Prison Demographics	3:44
Description of Federal Prison Facilities	7:09
Description of Prison Supervision Levels	8:38
Description of Educational and Training Programs	14:28
Review of Resources Available within the Institutions	27:10
Q&A	30:28